DESTINATION

Here's our must-visit attractions when visiting Houston.

Johnson Space Center

Home to NASA, the Johnson Space Center features more than 400 space artefacts as well as numerous permanent and travelling exhibits. There are also a range of attractions and an in-house theatre dedicated to the exciting future and remarkable past of America's human space-flight program.

Houston Zoo

With over 6,000 animals across 55 acres, Houston Zoo is quite simply a city within a city hosting over 1.8m guests a year. There is plenty to explore from the Kipp Aquarium and its coral reef colonies, to the African Forest and its endangered white rhinos.

Buffalo Bayou Park

This 52 mile slow moving river is the site of Houston's founding in 1836 and provides a quiet and secluded retreat from the hustle and bustle with a range of hike, bike and kayak trails on offer in the park.

Minute Maid Park

Home of the Houston Astros, expect to see nothing less than a major league professional baseball team in action. Grab a hotdog and a Pepsi and take in the thrill of the game, you may even appear on the jumbotron (big screen)!

Rodeo

Quintessentially Texan, the rodeo has a lot to offer from stetson slinging country music, to prized livestock, bronc riding, barrel racing and steer wrestling. Why not complete the night with a traditional Texan sidestep at one of the line dancing parties?
